Display the How Many Fractions? Sheet (see below). Point out the shaded portions of the pictures. Have the students write down as many fractions as they can to describe the shaded portions of each picture.

How many different fractions can you find that describe these pictures? What are they? Please record in the journal.